Dear Bob,
Ha!

Mr. Glynn,
It was great this year, even though I didn't have you in great class. Have a great summer,
Kevin

Mr. Glynn,
I enjoyed your class
and you were a good teacher. Thanks!

Mr. Glynn,
I have really
learned a lot in this class. I enjoyed it and found myself participating more and understanding more of the W.T. I wish I could a Catholic (or any other religion)

but the past two years Mr. Spessiale and especially you have taught me that people that have convictions are not wierd, but just different. I still do not protest to be religious but you have opened my

UNDER THE SUN YOU'LL DISCOVER

With the discovery of gold in the American River, Sacramento was born, destined to become one of the most significant contributors in shaping the destiny of the American West. Sacramento's name came from Gabriel Moraga, who named the river he found Sacramento, the Spanish word for Holy Sacrament.

John Sutter originally came into Sacramento's history as a Swiss immigrant. He received from Juan Alvarado, Mexican governor of California, a grant to settle in the new land and journeyed to what is now San Francisco. On August 12, 1839 he sailed to what is now downtown Sacramento. Near this site he built the famous Sutter's Fort.

Sutter's Mill originated from Sutter's desire for a new source of lumber. He established a sawmill along the heavily forested South Fork of the American River. It was here in January of 1848 James Marshall discovered gold.

Sacramento's designation as the state capitol marked a high point in its history.

In 1860 a key event in Sacramento's rich history was its role as the western end of the famed Pony Express, which was in operation for almost 18 months before the invention of the telegraph.

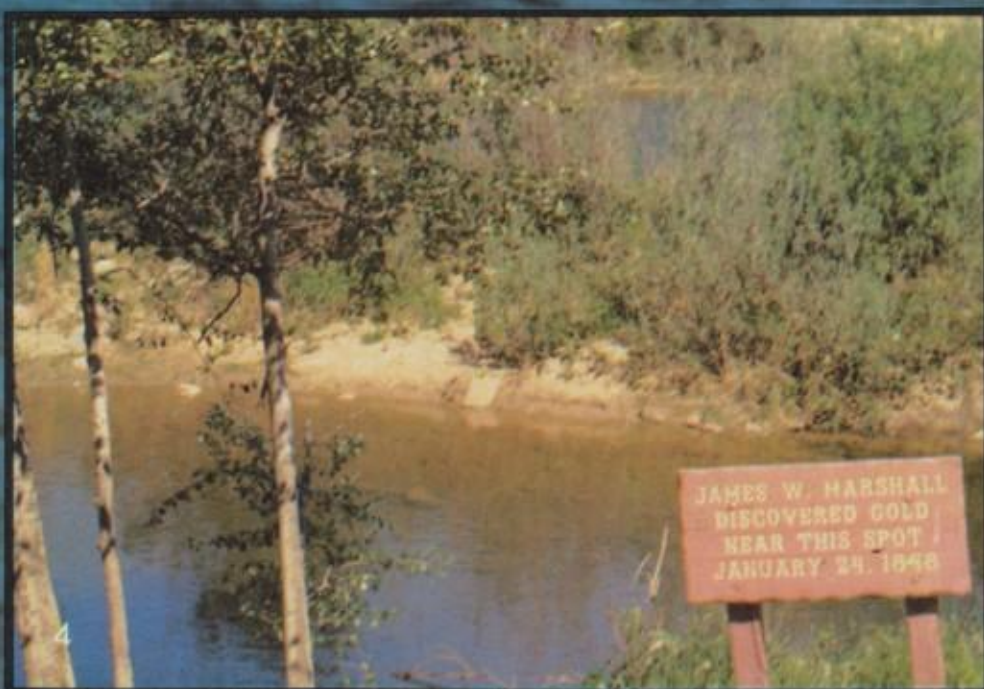

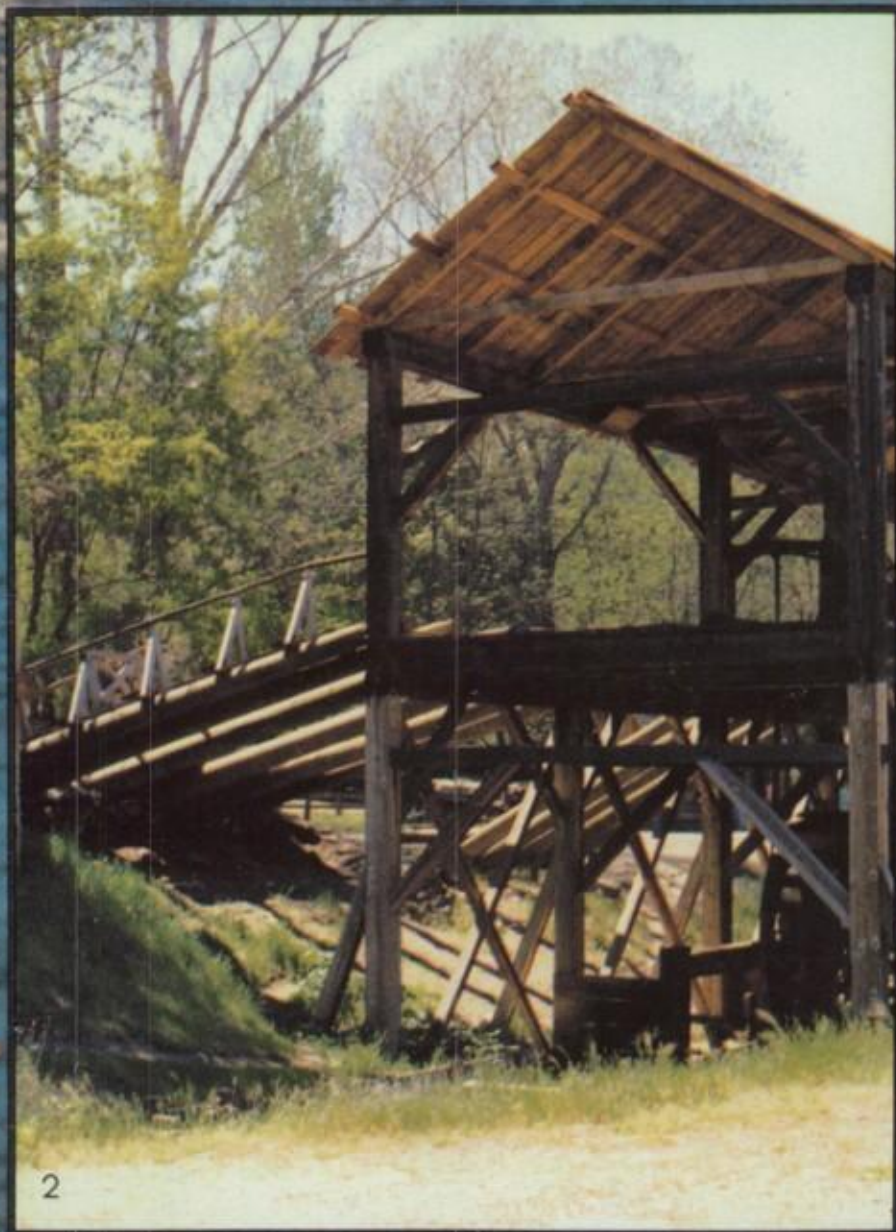

The Central Pacific Railroad was established here in 1863, making a great contribution to railroad history. In May of 1980 Sacramento opened the finest railroad museum in the country.

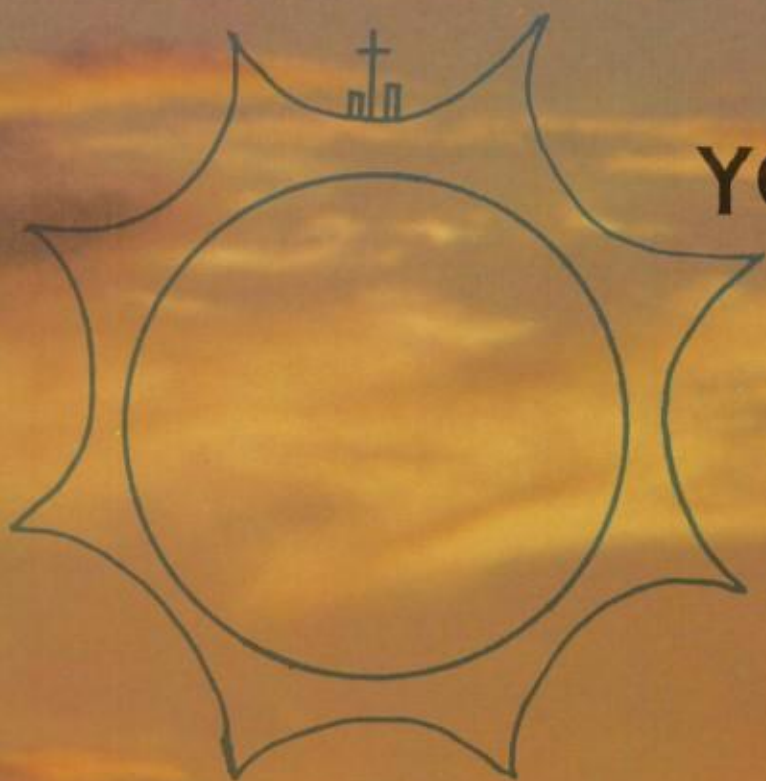

Previously designated as a historical landmark by the U.S. Department of the Interior, Old Sacramento has established itself prominently as the heart of the Gold Country.

JESUIT

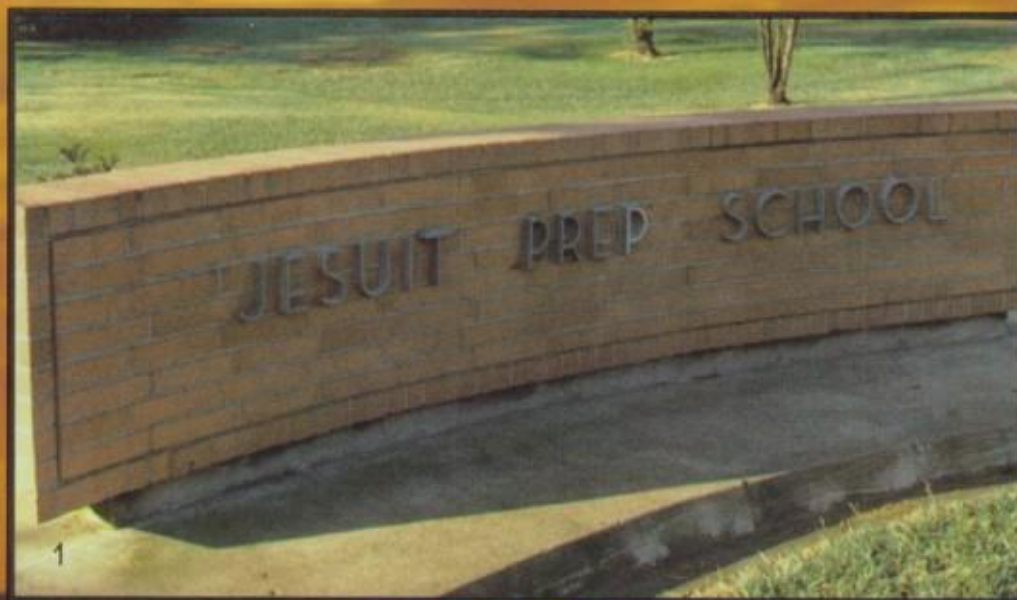

Bishop Joseph McGucken invited the Jesuits of the California Province to begin a Jesuit high school in the Sacramento area. The Society of Jesus then purchased twenty-one acres of property to be used for the campus in January of 1961.

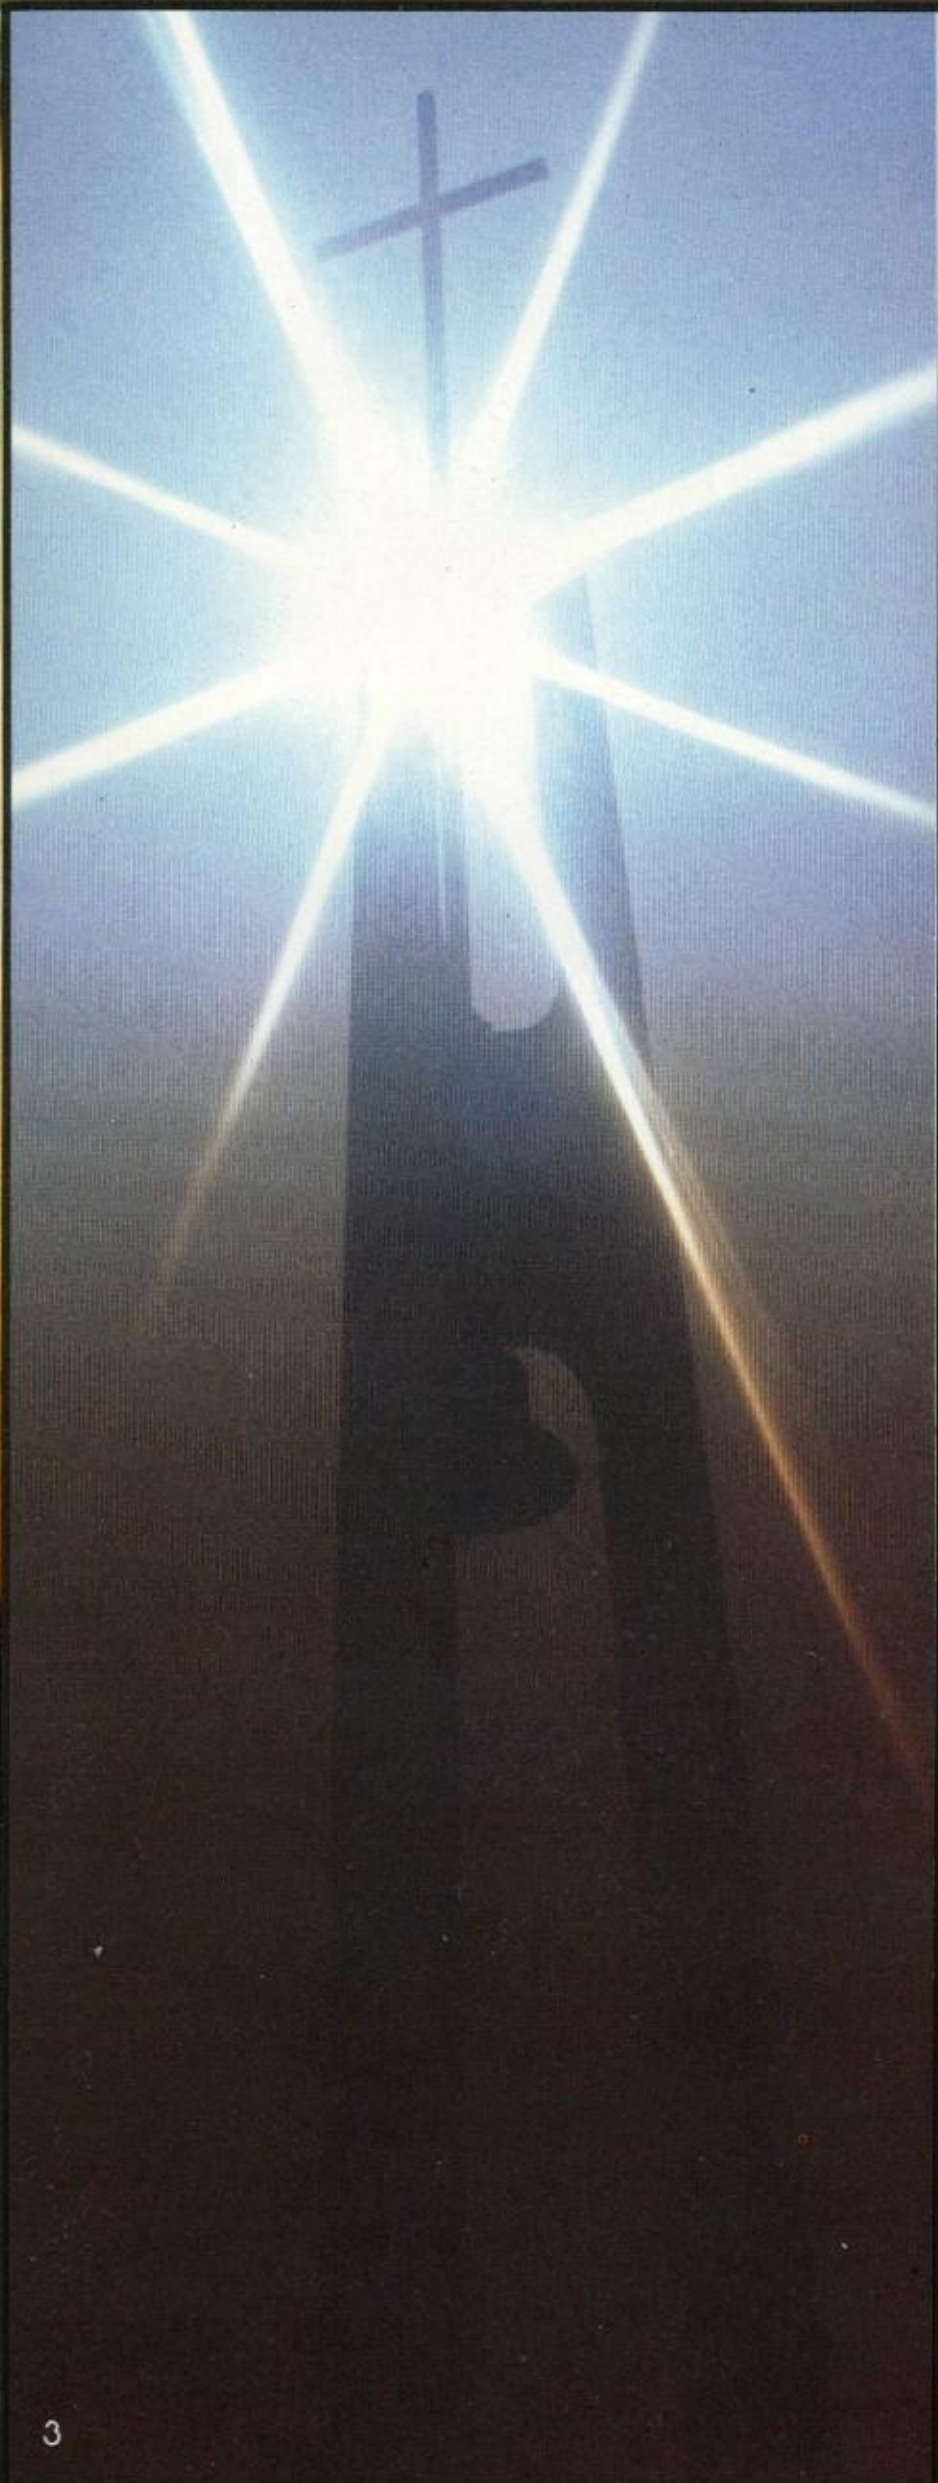

Ninety-three freshman students entered Jesuit High School on September 17, 1963. Six Jesuit priests and one layman made up the faculty and the school was dedicated by Bishop Alden Bell to the Jesuit North American Martyrs.

The twenty-one acres of athletic fields were acquired in September of 1964, and two years later the faculty residence was enlarged. In 1968 the little theater-gymnasium complex was completed.

In September of 1973 the Jesuit community was informed that because of financial difficulties and lack of manpower Jesuit was to be closed. Sacramento citizens rallied support and Jesuit was saved when a new management was proposed. In August of 1974 a Jesuit-Layman Board of Trustees became the governing body of the school.

Today Jesuit High School stands for academic excellence and spiritual formation. Through the cooperation of Jesuit faculty and parents, Jesuit looks to the future with optimism and challenge.

PERSONALITIES

Jesuit is people. Within our academic core lies a world of talent and creativity. At Jesuit can be found the athlete, the artist, the musician, as well as the scholar.

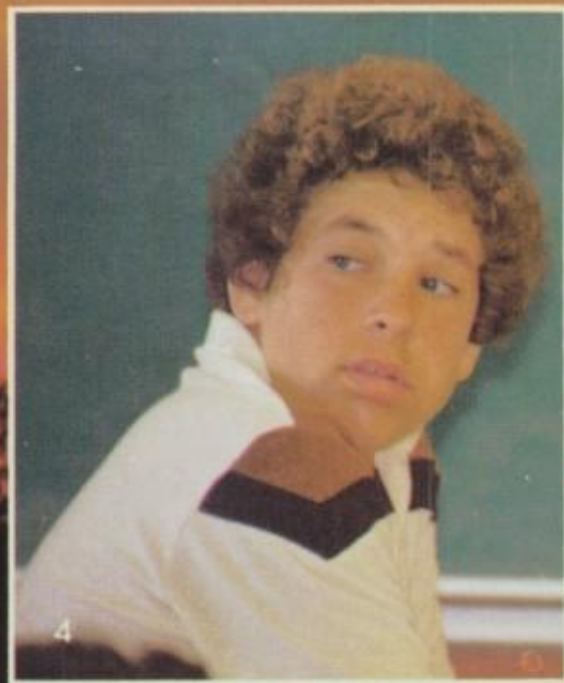

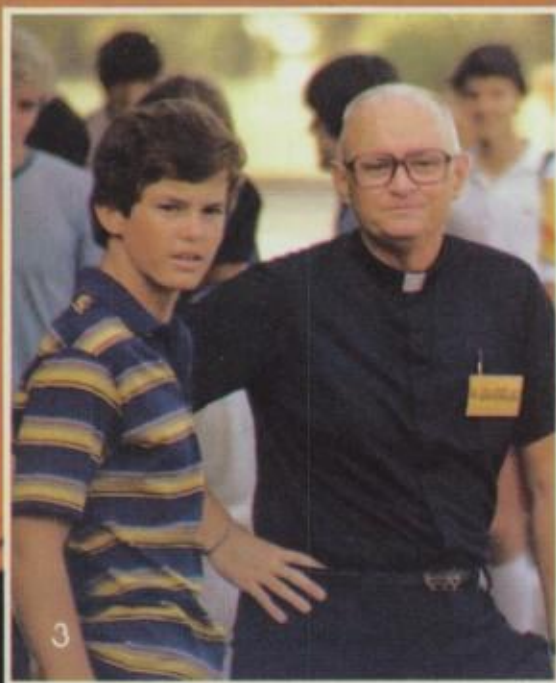

The student body at Jesuit consists of many different ethnic groups, including: Filipinos, Indians, Koreans, Viet-Nameese, Japanese, Chinese, Mexicans, Blacks, Caucasians and finally, our nemesis, the Artesians. Contrary to the present world situation, the unity of all the nationalities at Jesuit is extraordinarily good. (Even the Artesians can be dealt with.)

Also contributing to the composition of our student body are our numerous teams and clubs. The one element that characterizes all of Jesuit's organizations is pride.

These talented individuals blend together to form the composite Jesuit student, a young man interested in a variety of things: the people about him, what he can accomplish, and . . . his place under the sun.

YOU'LL DISCOVER . . . JESUS CHRIST

The Jesuit experience is academic and more. This year the community at Jesuit first came together at the Mass of the Holy Spirit. Other activities throughout the year such as daily Masses and student/faculty Masses successfully rejuvenated the feeling of togetherness at Jesuit.

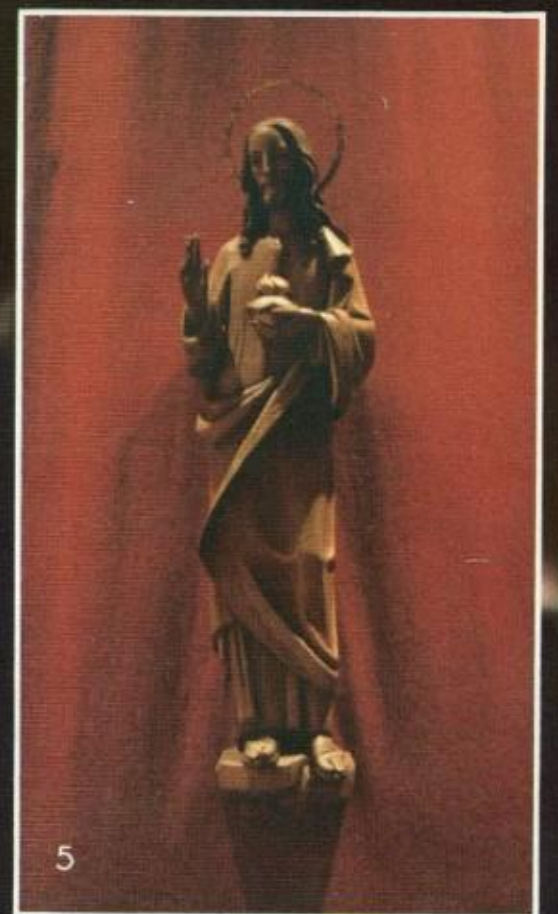

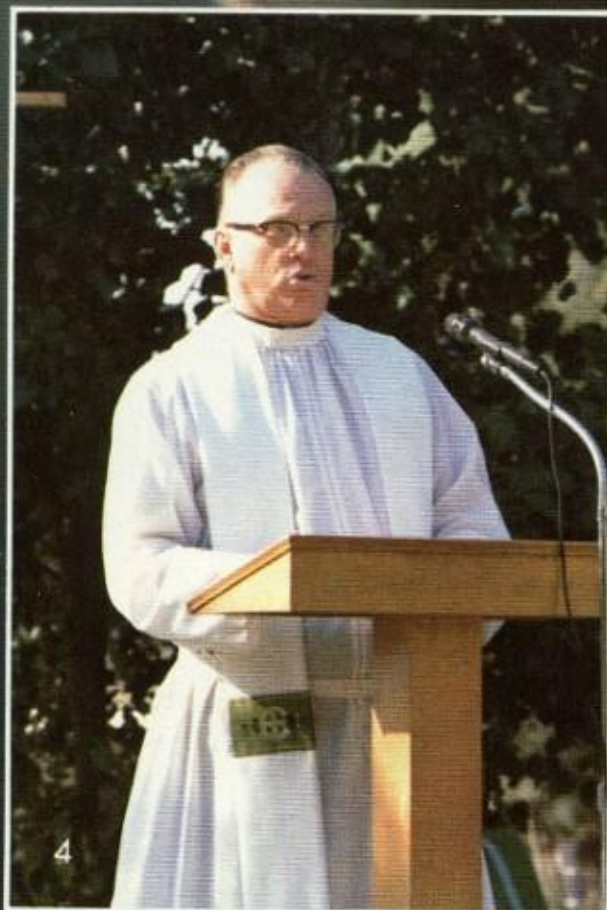

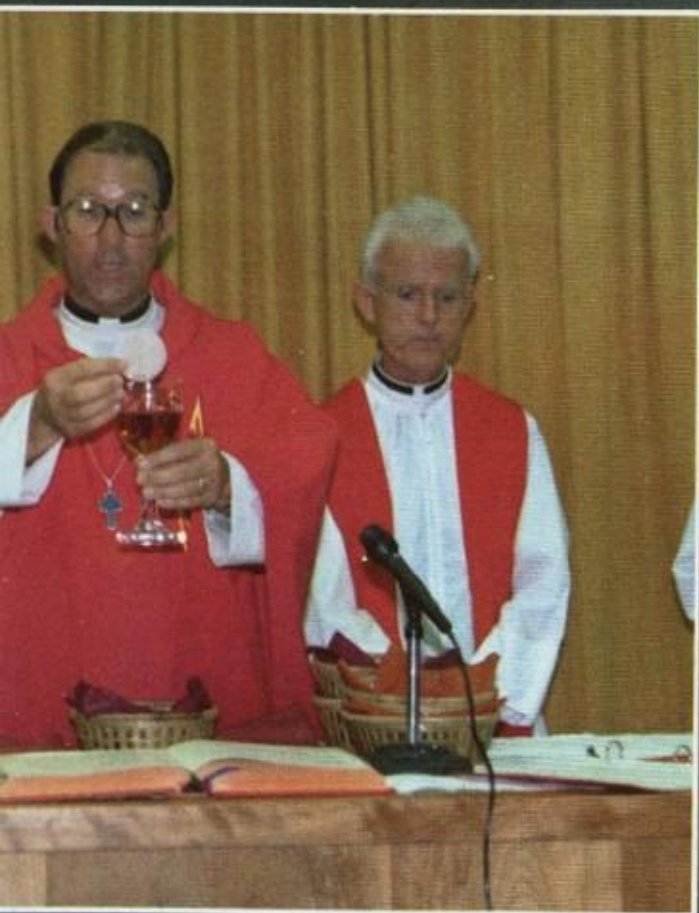

Special activities for the underclassmen, the Freshman Day of Prayer, and the Sophomore Day of Recollection, provided an in-depth look at their contributions to Jesuit.

The Applegate Retreats and the Liturgy Workshop played an important role in making some seniors more aware of their religious convictions.

Prayer groups headed by several faculty members continued to grow and team chaplains actively sought to bring Jesuit's athletic teams closer together.

SPIRIT WEEK BREEDS COMPETITION

Best efforts by the Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors were not enough to topple the Senior dynasty. The Class of '82 enhanced their victory by winning the Float competition for the third consecutive year. Events of skill (volleyball, pie-eating, tug-of-war, and the all new Hot Shot competition), as well as events of participation (cheering contests, Marauder Dress Up Day, game attendance and Theme Dress Up Day, made this year's Spirit Week an on going battle which no class will ever forget.

One of the highlights of the week proved to be the First Annual Theme Day. Each class picked a theme and then tried to get everyone to dress accordingly. The Freshmen (dressed as Rio Students), Sophomores (dressed as Bum's) and the Juniors (dressed in Togas) once again fought hard but could not overcome the Seniors and their conniving Secret Service Day. Theme Day was just one of the events which will make Spirit Week 1981 live on in the memory of Jesuit forever and ever.

CUTLASS CREATES NEW CHANGE

Yearbook class wasn't all fun and games. Hectic weekends, midnight deadlines, and darkroom marathons were all commonplace.

Led by co-editors Niel "Fisch" Fischer and "Mr. American Gigolo" Tony Roide, the end result reflects creativity, ingenuity, and leadership abilities.

Constant advice from "The Board" kept the staff in check and frequent visits by John the Yearbook man were invaluable.

Finally the staff wishes to say a giant thank you to our fearless leader, Fr. Whitten, without whose help this book would never have been completed.

PLANK PRODUCES PRODIGIOUS PAPER

Newspaper reporting is not always easy. However, this year's Plank staff turned out an entertaining tabloid. From personal portraits of Dean Meyer to revealing interviews with new faculty members, school news was reported with a definite flare. Under the direction of Mr. Wilson Kerby and leadership of editor Chip Lee, The Plank produced a record number of issues.

The Plank can confidently stake its claim to literary achievement. Who could forget Pat McCrystle's basketball wrapups, John Finess' feature articles or Jeff Lutgen's murky pictures? Finally a most appropriate salute goes to Jim Sweigert whose artwork was more than adequate.

JESUIT SENIORS LEARN TO BE MEN FOR OTHERS

Devoting time to help others has been a major theme in the changes at Jesuit. Jesuit's Community Service program carried that theme out.

Mr. Tim Warren took over at the helm of the program and promoted a more structured plan. In addition to 65 hours of volunteer work, each senior was required to write two papers on his experience at his placement.

The seniors worked at various placements including the Easter Seals Society, The Children's Receiving Home, Diogenes Youth Service and at senior citizen's homes. The dedication of Jesuit's seniors shows their willingness to give of themselves.

THE BAND PLAYS ON!

Much of the success of this year's band program was due to some very dedicated and talented people. Through the years, Jesuit has seen its bands grow from something almost nonexistent to the fine institutions that they are today.

Director John Monks leads a total of five bands, all showing great promise: Beginning, Concert, Symphonic, Pep, and Stage (Jazz). The Pep Band, under the outstanding leadership and student direction of senior Roger Levinson, has made an almost complete turnaround. Once known for its sloppy playing and "blasting techniques," it is now highly revered and respected by the student body. The Stage Band, composed of 17 members (12 of whom are seniors), has had a fine year. They have participated in several jazz festivals, and to highlight their year, they have planned a European concert tour for this summer.

Jesuit is proud of its music program and of the people who

FOOD DRIVE MAKES CHRISTMAS MERRY

Frosh dominance characterized the 1981 Food Drive. Under the tenacious leadership of Mrs. Ravera, the freshmen compiled the largest number of points ever by a single class. In a sense, the party was over before it ever got started.

The 1981 Food Drive, moderated by Mr. Tom McGuire, was the most successful since its initiation in 1968. A total of 11,844 pounds of food and nearly 4,000 dollars were collected by the Jesuit student body. These nutritional delights and monetary funds were given to needy families in the Del Paso Heights area.

Special thanks must be given to Mr. McGuire, Mr. Ballard, the class moderators, and the freshmen, who won the class competition in a landslide.

BLOCK J SERVES TIME

Service clubs often go unnoticed during high school. Much of the time, students join the club just so they can list an extracurricular activity on their transcript. Such is not the case at Jesuit. The Block "J" organization functions with great pride.

The members of Block "J" are dedicated students who volunteer their time to assist at school-related functions. The Block "J" contributes to Jesuit in many ways, including: PACE, Bleacher Bums, and Spring Fling.

One of the unique qualities of Jesuit is its ability to interact with the community. Block "J" preserves this outstanding characteristic through its off campus endeavors, such as: Ushering at the Installation of Bishop Gallegos, and assisting at the P.A.L. Basketball Tournament. All things considered, Block "J" is an outstanding organization.

LIBRARY DEDICATED TO FR. KING

Father Joseph F. King, S.J., was the second of eighth children born to Joseph and Lillian King in San Francisco on August 20, 1900. Having attended St. Peter's Grammar School, he then moved on to St. Ignatius High School where he graduated at the age of 15. In 1916 he entered Sacred Heart Novitiate in Los Gatos. After earning a degree in philosophy at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Fr. King began teaching at Seattle Prep School. He began studying theology at St. Louis University in 1927, and in 1929, earned his second master's degree in Church History.

At the age of 28, Fr. Joseph King was ordained a Jesuit priest by Cardinal Glennon in St. Louis, where he remained until 1931. Fr. King then returned to teach at St. Ignatius in San Francisco.

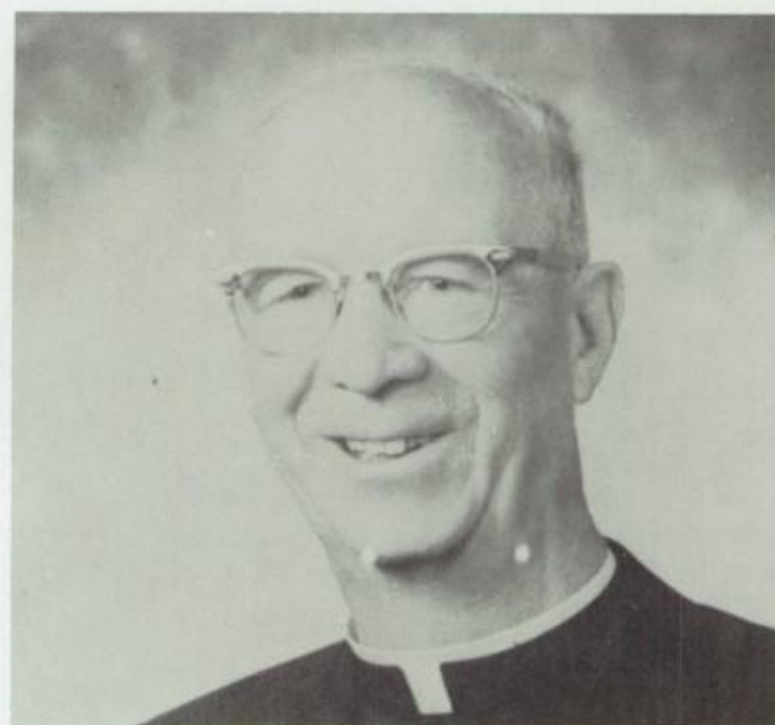

In 1933, Fr. King returned to the Sacred Heart Novitiate in Los Gatos as a Juniorate Professor, and was named Master of Novices for the California province two years later. Fr. King held that position until 1942, when he was appointed Provincial of the California Province of the Society of Jesus. In 1948 he went to Rome as a representative to the General Congregation of the Jesuit Order. He then returned to St. Ignatius where he spent the next ten years as Student Chaplain. From this post Fr. King was assigned to the Ryan Seminary for the Diocese of Fresno where he trained young priests. Finally he came to Jesuit High School in 1965.

Fr. King served as Chaplain of Jesuit from 1965 to 1979. He enjoys swimming, and possesses a unique talent in the art of piano playing. This talent is put to fine use with Fr. King's active participation in Spring Fling.

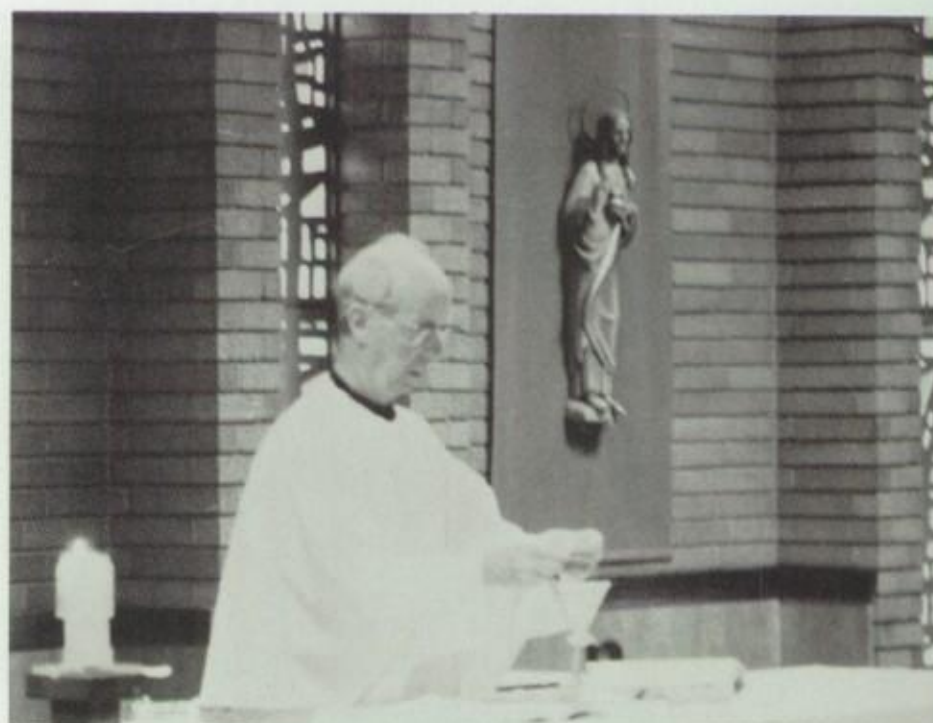

At the age of 82, Fr. Joseph King is highly revered by the student body for his supreme dedication. He is, without a doubt, highly deserving of that respect.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DISPENSES FUNDS

TOM MAGUIRE

Moderator

Elections for student Government took place last year. Student Government this year was headed by Mr. Tom McGuire. This is Mr. McGuire's first year at Jesuit, but he is experienced in student government. Student Government dispenses funds to groups around campus such as the Galley Crew, Yearbook, and other clubs who need some help. Meetings took place once a month and different items were voted on. There were a lot of problems on campus and it was Student Government's job to see that they were fixed.

MIKE TURNACLYFF

Senior Class President

Patrick McCrystle, better known as a track star, is the J-high Student Body President. Pat, who lists sports and music as hobbies, wants to become the head of the San Diego Zoo. His 3.9 grade point average will lead him to Cal-Berkeley next fall. Patrick's duties as Student Body President center around directing Student Council meetings and organizing Freshmen elections.

PAT McCRYSTLE

CHRIS DeBACKER

Cross-Country, Track, and Baseball are just some of the extra-curricular activities of Chris Debacker. In addition to being Student-Body Vice-President, Chris maintains a 3.9 grade point average which he hopes to take to Cal-Berkeley next fall. As Vice-President, Chris is second in command to the President, and his chief adviser.

PAUL WIGHT
Junior Class President

Steve "Smitty" Smith, the Student Body Secretary is a proud J-high senior. Lettering in both basketball and football "Smitty" will probably attend St. Mary's in the fall. In his spare time, Steve enjoys training emus and drinking pop. His secretarial duties are to record and update all minutes at Student Council meetings.

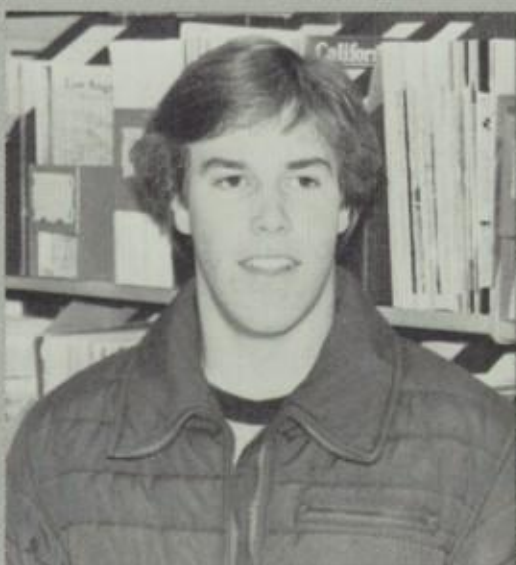

STEVE SMITH

MIKE ELLISON

Mike Ellison is the "Money Man" at Jesuit. The basketball and baseball star holds the office of Student-Body Treasurer. Mike, who attended Starr King grammar school, lists music and sports as hobbies, and hopes to attend St. Mary's next year. As Treasurer it is his responsibility to keep track of all money transactions in the student council fund.

DAVE SCHOLTZ

Ted Gabrielli, the Sergeant-at-Arms, is a graduate of Our Lady of Assumption grammar school. Highly visible around Jesuit, Ted plays football and is the much appreciated basketball trainer. His ambitions are to attend Santa Clara and become a doctor or engineer. As Sergeant-at-Arms, Ted has the task of running intramurals, a job at which he excels.

BLEACHER BUMS BLUNDERS

Poor, funny, creative, all these things accurately describe this year's Fall theatrical production, "Bleacher Bums." Directed by Mr. Michael Leon, the play was an overwhelming financial success.

The plot centered around some loyal, if not fanatical, Chicago Cub fans sitting in the famed bleachers of Chicago's Wrigley Field. Melody (Claudine Desmond) teased the audience with her "dumb blonde" antics. Marvin, played by Mark Dausses, was a Cub hater obsessed with betting against the Cubs.

The supporting cast was equally talented with wonderful performances put in by Meg Willett, Kris Rink, Scott Hamilton, John Boze, Jon Groh, and Steven "Stinger" Scott.

Overall, "Bleacher Bums" was a delightful comedy filled with entertainment.

ANNOUNCERS ATTACK AIRWAYS

Rolling with the new sounds of the eighties is the Radio Club. Under the direction of Fr. Hernandez, the club is responsible for providing entertainment at lunch. They also aid the cheerleaders at rallies. The Radio Clubs' most impressive accomplishment is the unique way in which they successfully run the complicated sound system for the Spring Fling. The president of the club, Jim MacDonnell organizes a group of skilled soundmen with the help of Forrest Boozier. For the benefit of many seniors, the Radio Club occasionally plays British rock including the Beatles, The Who, and of course, the Rolling Stones.

SPANISH CLUB CELEBRATES FESTIVALS

Fun is the word used to describe the Spanish Club this year. The club is made up of Spanish III students and is moderated by Mr. Donato. The Spanish Club served the school in numerous ways through its Burrito sales. The proceeds from the Burrito sales go to orphans in Mexico. The club also tutors students in Spanish. The Spanish Club also presents an Academic Excellence Award to a senior each year for his advancement in the Spanish language. But after all the work is done, the members of the club are noted for having good times.

PRAYER GROUPS REACH SPIRITUAL HEIGHTS

Group effort is what makes prayer groups work. Prayer is a key element of life at Jesuit. Mr. Steve Speciale, S.J. leads three groups, the "Vatican 3 Prayer Group", "Carnivorous Guavas", and the "Junior R. 501 Prayer Group."

The main idea of the prayer groups is to encourage students to realize that they are all spiritual beings, and that their spiritual lives either go forward in growth, or, if ignored, remain stagnant and wither. Students in the prayer groups form a deeper bond with each other, both inside and outside the group because they realize that God is really present in their lives.

Attempts to achieve a more prayerful atmosphere are made with the aid of tapes and slides. Each group meets once a week for about 15 minutes of guided reflection.

GALLEY CREW SETS NEW TREND IN SPIRIT

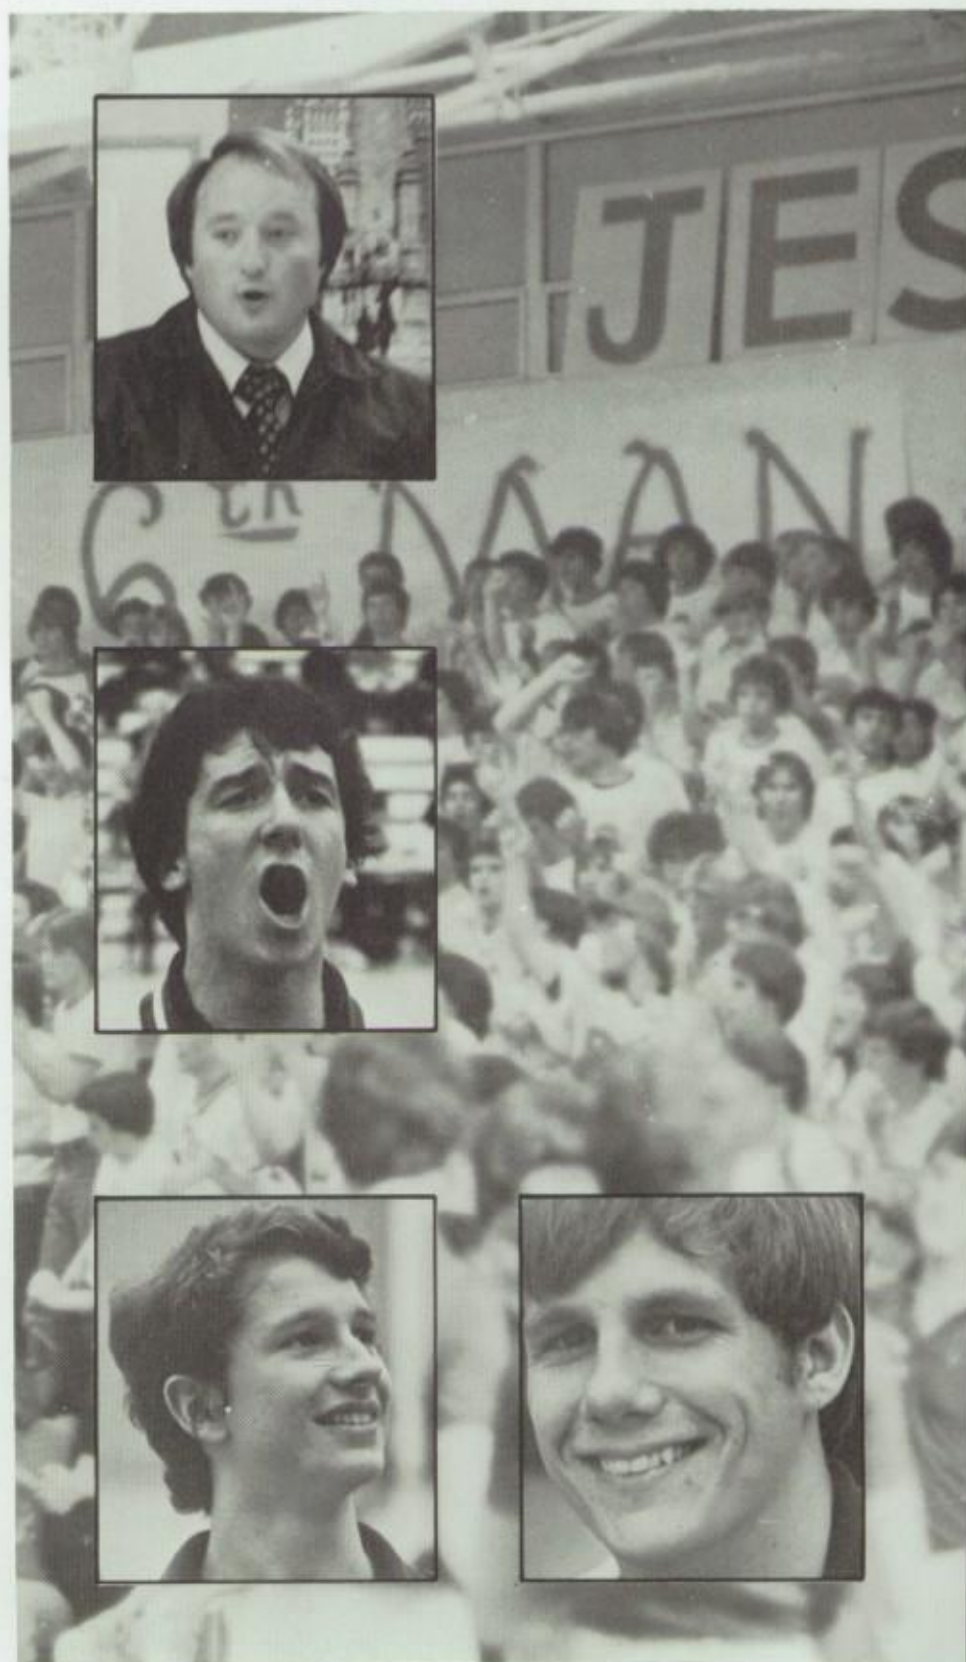

Says it all!

Massive amounts of paper (over 3200 ft.), gallons of paint, and a ton of effort and humor were used by the 1981-82 Galley Crew to make this year ultra-spirited. Under the guidance of Tom Donato, Cheerleading extraordinaires Brothers, Hughes, Levi, Turner, Dickinson, Rooney and Betts led the Jesuit Student Body to new heights in poster-making, rally planning, and overall spirit building. To sum it up, this year's Galley Crew showed how spirit can turn ordinary Jesuit students into animals.

The rally committee received memorable performances from Kelly Brothers, Howard Hughes, and "The Heavy Metal Marauder" himself, Joe Duffel. So amazing were these feats that the entire student body was

FR. JAMES FLYNN S.J.

It seems appropriate that "the City of the Angels" should be the birthplace of one "Rev. James Flynn S. J." Both Bishop Garcia High School in Santa Barbara and Santa Clara University granted "Jimbo" diplomas on the basis of some talent which has yet to be displayed at Jesuit (J.K.). Currently, "Flynnsie" teaches Latin I and is striving toward his ambition of being "the principal of the best Jesuit Prep School in the world." Rev. Jim lists swimming, going to lunch, and "hunting for prime rays" as his favorite hobbies. P.S. Beefeaters forever!

MR. RON EDWARDS

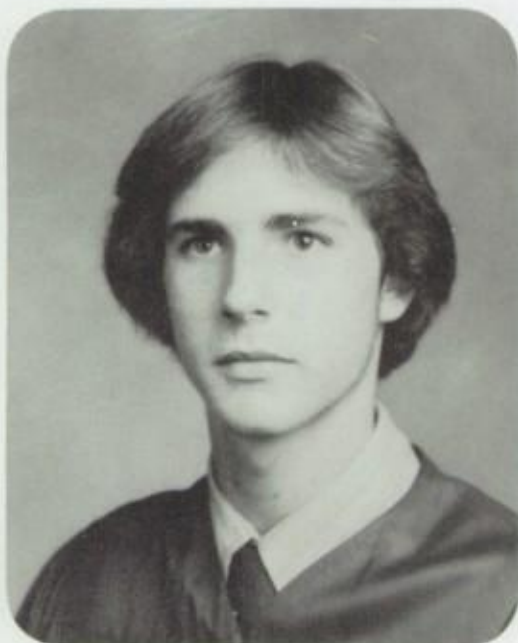

Mr. Ron Edwards was born in Prairie du Chein, Wisconsin but was raised in Sacramento where he attended the other boys' Catholic high school; C.B.S. At Jesuit he is the Associate Principal and teaches Bio-Chemistry. Mr. Edwards' ambition is to grow old gracefully and in our opinion he has almost reached his goal. The Ex-Dean enjoys wood-sculpting, fishing and hunting.

2nd SEMESTER BRINGS NEW TEACHERS?

MRS. MARGARET SMITH

Mrs. Margaret Smith, following in the immortal footsteps of Mrs. Ravera, has become the second teacher of the female species here at Jesuit. She teaches Theology III and Old Testament. Mrs. Smith attended college at Lone Mountain and Santa Clara after attending high school at the Convent of Sacred Heart in SF. Her hobbies include arts, crafts, and theatre. Her ambition is to make it to June. She is the mother of three (Kids, I guess) and is into Meditation.

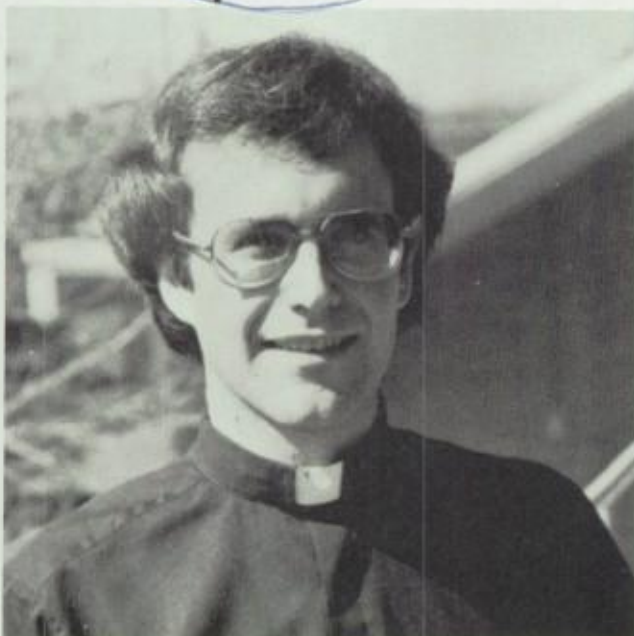

FR. BILL FEESER

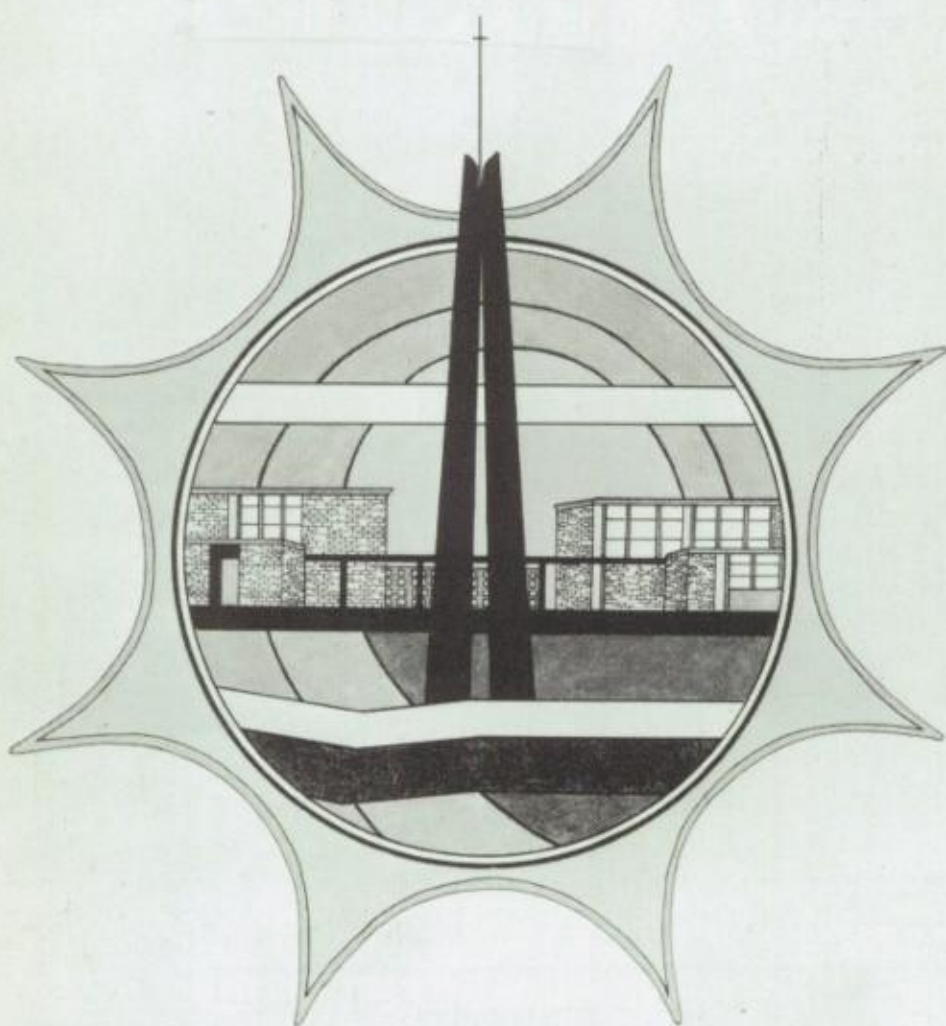

Fr. Bill Feeser comes over to Jesuit from Our Lady of the Assumption Parish to teach Theology. He was born in The City of Brotherly Love (Philadelphia) and attended the University of Pennsylvania. Fr. Feeser's ambition is to become a saint. This goal seems a bit lofty, unless he raises someone from the dead, makes Mr. Kerby grow, or gives Fr. Whitten some hair.

MR. ROBERT GLYNN, N.S.J.

Out of Oakland, California and Alameda High School comes Mr. Robert Glynn, N.S.J. Mr. Glynn also attended Hebrew University of Jerusalem, USF, and Loyola of Chicago at Rome. He teaches Sophomore Theology and Freshman English. Mr. Glynn's ambition is to get the N (Novice) out of the N.S.J. and in his spare time he likes to pound out a few hot tunes on the bongo drums.

Juniors are crazy. Freshmen are real people; Sophomores are wise fools, but Juniors are just plain nuts.

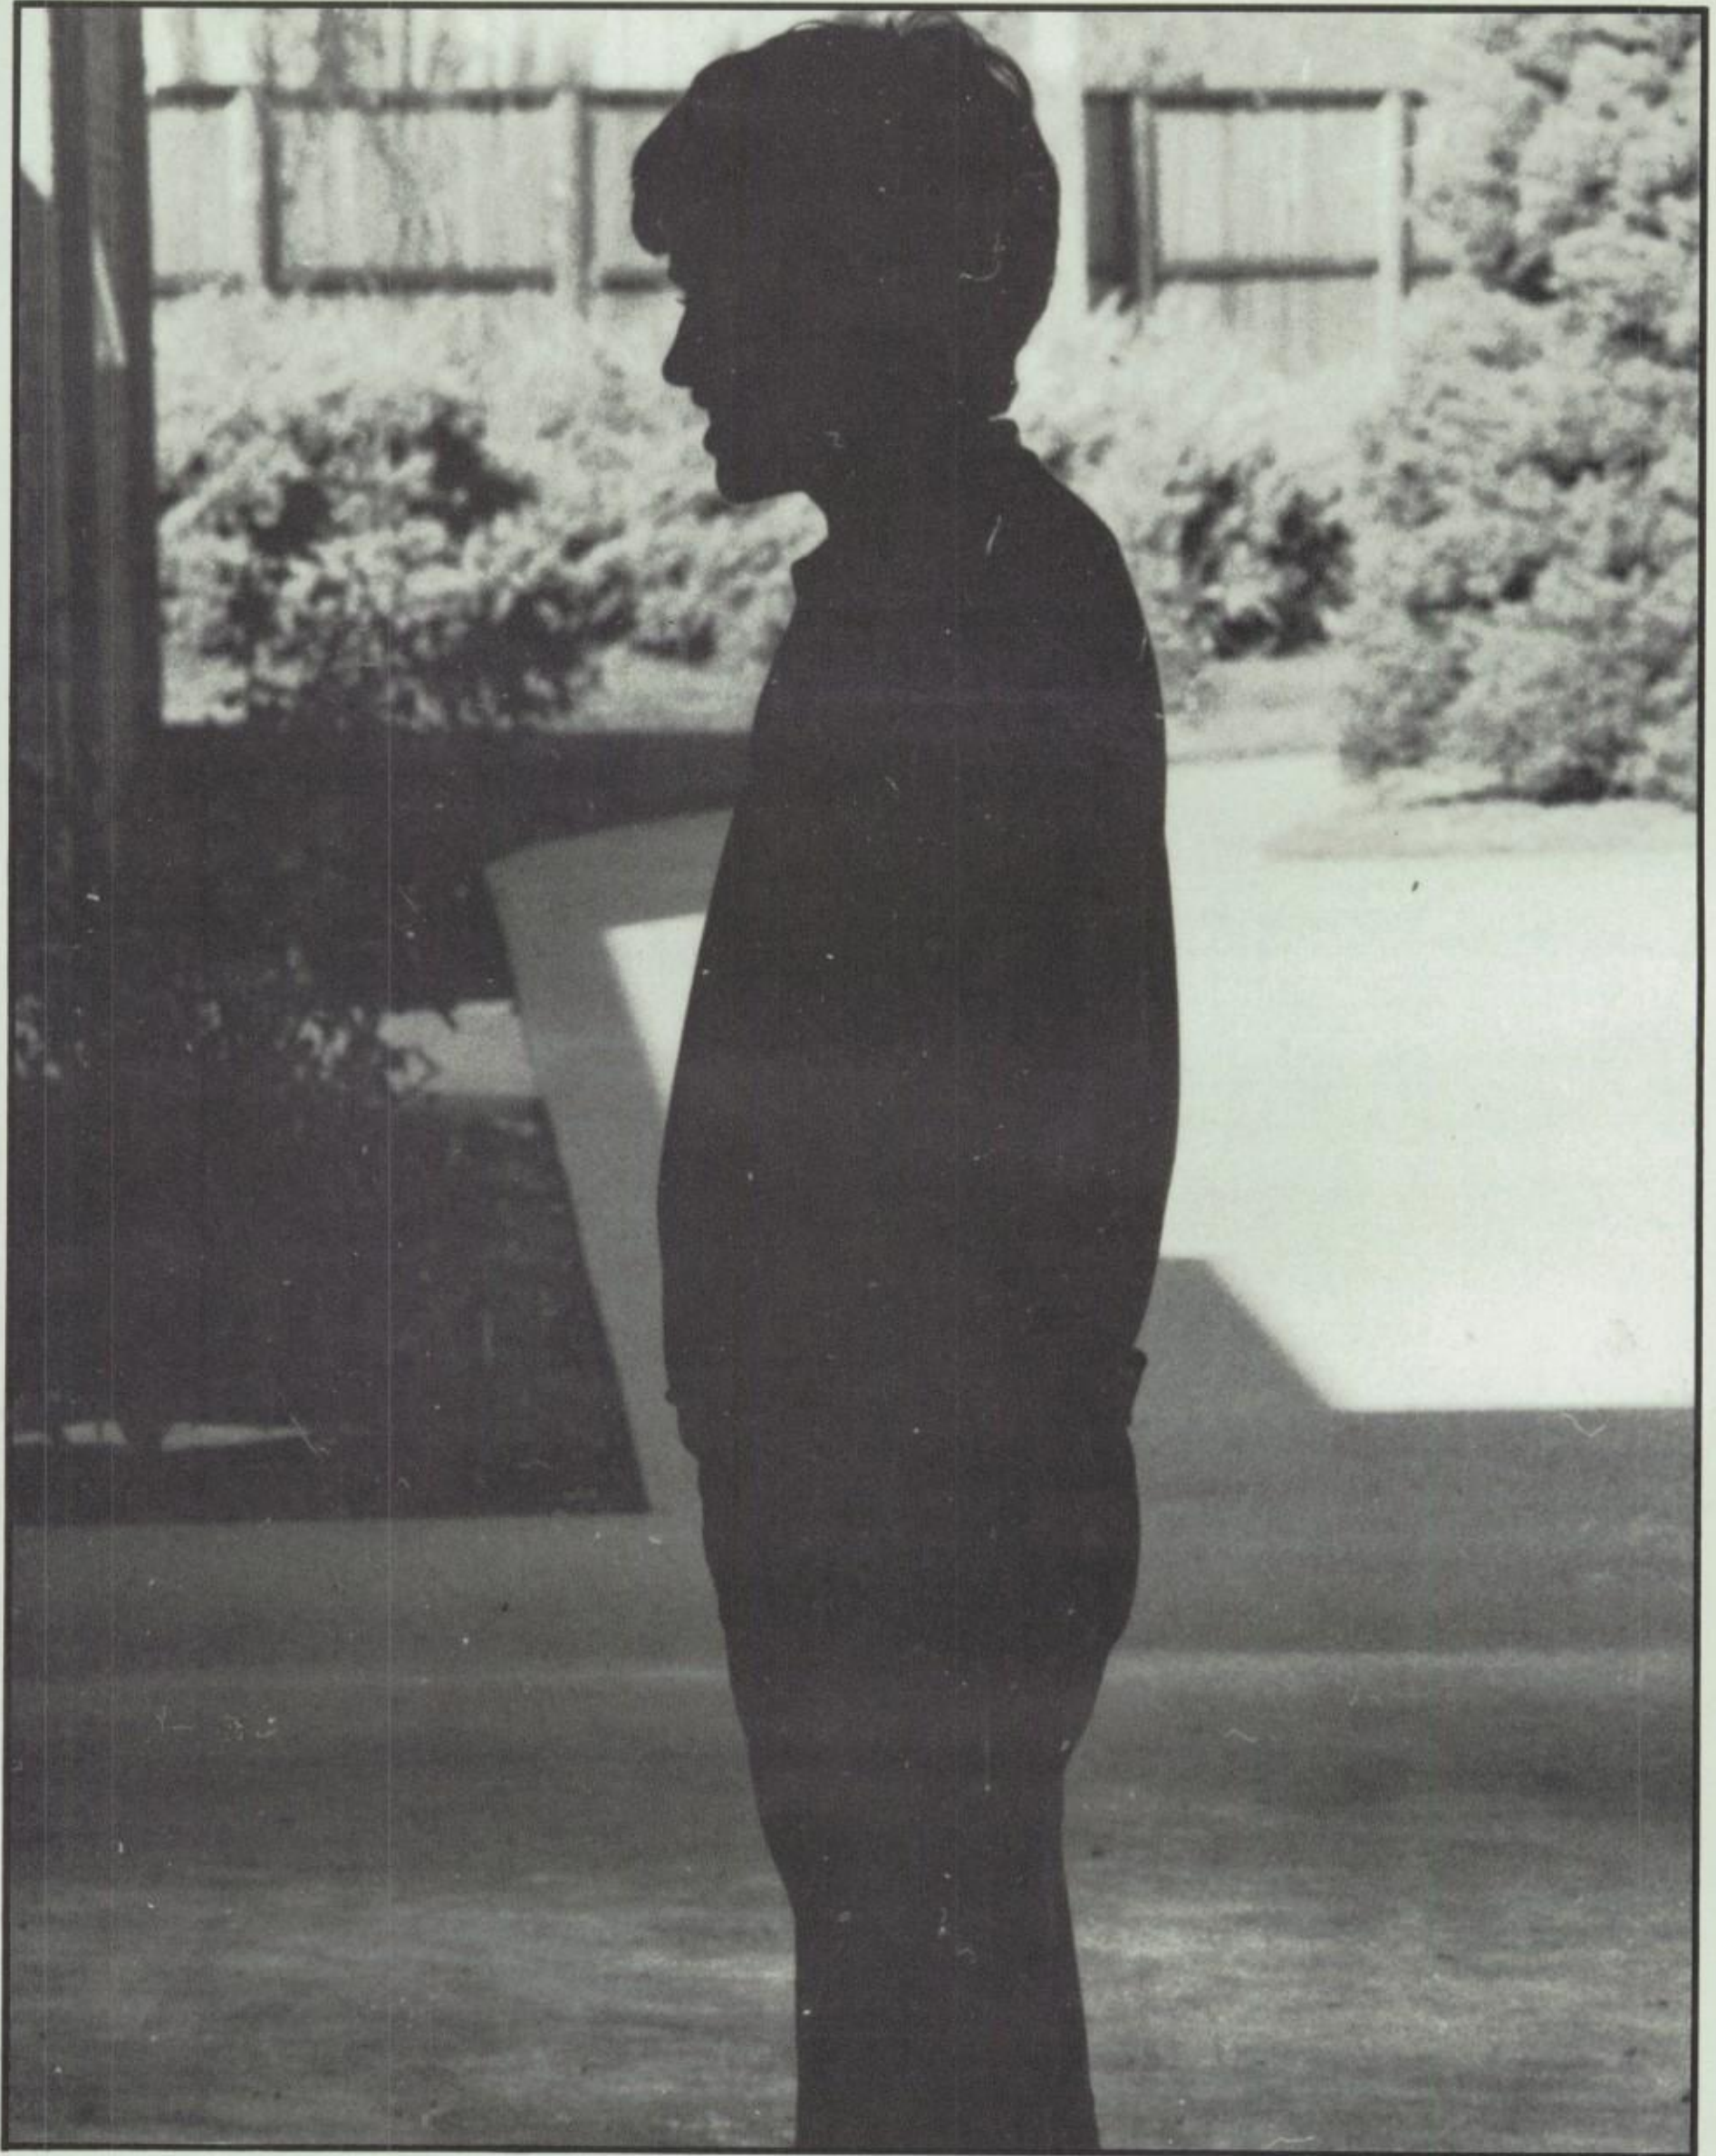

Junior year around here is the toughest and the crazies were up to the task. In all fields of achievement, the Juniors excelled.

Awesome Junior athletic talent made the Marauder Sports Program a success from September to the Springtime. The Juniors also significantly contributed to the cheerleading ranks and helped make school spirit a powerful force.

Although a last place finish during Homecoming competition was disappointing, the Juniors were very spirited. They made Jesuit a positive experience and a fun place to learn.

Howdy Doody

Sophomores are known as "wise fools" around Jesuit. They're wise enough not to be freshmen, but are still considered foolish because they're sophomores.

However the class of '84 seems to be an exception to the rule. This year's sophomores surround Jesuit with all kinds of talent.

League winning Jayvee Football and Basketball teams and a fine Cross Country squad surpassed all expectations.

Finally, the sophomores aren't perfect. They proved this by finishing in a last place tie during competition for the Homecoming crown. Everything they did seemed to fizzle.

Freshmen are real people too. Though the first year of high school was a big challenge, the Freshmen tackled it head-on.

Throughout the year, the "Frosh" exhibited awesome school spirit and even placed second in the Homecoming competition.

This year's crop of freshmen produced several fine athletes. The powerful Football team proved to be one of the finest in Jesuit history. Little Red Cross Country and Basketball also showed exceptional potential for the future.

Despite all the abuse from upperclassmen, the Freshmen displayed their vast talents and established themselves as a group that keeps on growing.

Another soccer season has passed and once again Jesuit reached the playoffs. Behind the supreme coaching abilities of Mr. Paul Rose and some strong individual efforts, the Marauders charged into the T.O.C. by outdueling McClatchy in the wild-card game, 1-0.

After handling Franklin by a score of 2-0, the Marauders encountered their league rival, Dixon. With the helping hand of the "zebras," Dixon pushed the game into overtime and finally ended the Marauder's season by a 2-1 margin.

Leading the Marauders to their 21-6-2 record were three All-League players: Seniors Pete "Goalmaker" Arellanes and Randy Ricci, and Junior, Jeff Meyer. Topping these honors was Dimitri Stanich who was named to the All-Metro team as a goalie.

With an outstanding crop of talent returning next year, including one frosh, two sophs, and a host of juniors, the Marauders can look forward to another successful year culminating with the T.O.C.

J.V. SOCCER NETS LEAGUE

Awesome records are not unfamiliar to Jesuit soccer, and Junior Varsity was no exception. With an overall record of 16-4-3, several momentous players yielded some exciting victories.

The team routed Rio Americano 6-1, and tied El Camino and Elk Grove, the two strongest teams in the area. Bella Vista, with an overall record of 14-3, suffered two serious losses when Jesuit humiliated them 4-0 and 1-0.

Outstanding performances were recorded by center fullback Robbie Ricci, left wing Tod Ray, striker Morgan Taylor, and left halfback Mike Farrell. Other gifted players included a company of very strong returning freshmen. Forwards Rick Bassinet, Steve Verloo and Jeff Thorne supplied consistent offense. Strong defense was anchored by goalie Karl Hanf and defender Nick Domich.

Head coach Dave Novak and assistant coach Steve Speciale, S. J. are optimistic about next year's team as the swarm of returning freshmen should provide a first-rate season.

HARRIERS TAKE ELEVENTH STRAIGHT TITLE

Varsity Cross Country again produced a fine season for Coach Walt Lange. Fine effort by everyone involved made the squad a tightly knit group.

The Varsity harriers began the season in fine fashion winning the Cordova Invitational. Other highlights included a seventh place showing in the Stanford Invitational, where junior Brett Stauffer finished eighth overall.

League opponents were tough, but the Marauders came away with their eleventh straight title. A seventh straight triumph in the Sub-Section meet was followed by a third place finish in Section competition. Finally the team capped a fine season in Nor-Cal competition by finishing twelfth.

J.V. HARRIERS RACE TO SECTIONS

J.V. Cross Country continued Jesuit's winning tradition. With four sophomores competing on the varsity level, the freshmen had to pick up the slack and they did so impressively.

The J.V. Harriers placed second in each of their first two meets at Cordova and Nevada Union. Leading the way was number one man, freshman Garrett Martin. Completing the top seven were Timothy McCrystle, Chad Taylor, James Walker, Arnie Sekaran, Mike Ciapuci, and Phil Boden. These talented freshmen represent a promising future.

As the season progressed, the frosh lost several harriers to a variety of mishaps. However the team pulled together and finished strong. They captured the Sub-Section title, and in Section Competition, placed fourth.

VARSITY BOUNCES BACK

Varsity Football started with only eight returning players. Under new head coach Dan Carmazzi, the team was made up of mainly last year's JV and first year varsity players.

During the season the Varsity gridgers defeated highly ranked Del Oro, Woodland, and Yuba City. They lost some close games to C.B.S., St. Pat's, and Norte. Jesuit's record was 3-6.

Top players included Scott Lippi, Greg Chelini, John Gedney, Chris Barsotti, and record setting Jeff Thomas among others. This year's team proved they had the will to win and future Jesuit football fans will be in for a few surprises.

NEW COACHES BUILD TEAM

Down . . . Ready . . . Set . . .

Outstanding players proved instrumental in providing an overall record of 5-4 for Junior Varsity Football. Several exciting highlights and "never a dull moment" offense brought thrills to the fans as well as to head coach George Harper and assistant coaches Paul Belluomini, Alan Leatherby, and Scott Meyers.

Fullback Shawn Holt, in a game against Del Oro, intercepted a pass and ran the ball back 102 yards for the score. Another prime example of the "never a dull moment" offense was safety Brian Ternan's last minute reception of quarterback Arturo Mikel's pass to win the game against Woodland 8-0.

Exceptional performances by linebacker Garen Horst and defensive lineman Jason Brenzel provided extraordinary defense. Linebacker Dave Scholtz also contributed greatly by leading the team in tackles.

The outlook for 1982 JV Football looks promising, as the freshman team is strong coming off a 5-3 season. Next year should provide more exciting highlights.

LITTLE RED WINS BIG

Promising nothing at the beginning of the season, the freshman football team finished 5-3. Under head coach Dick Meyers, the frosh combined an opportunistic offense with a stalwart defense to produce their five victories.

The offense was led by Greig Lagomarsino, who was awarded "Outstanding Back" for his efforts. The Marauder defense, anchored by "Outstanding Lineman" David Kunz, held the opposition scoreless on three separate occasions. Also included in Little Red's impressive season was a victory over Rio in the "Battle of American River Drive," by a score of 8-6.

Coach Meyers termed his team as "versatile, mobile, and hostile with talent in many areas." The talent, precision, and daring do of this freshman team promises much for the future.

CLASSIC TOURNAMENT

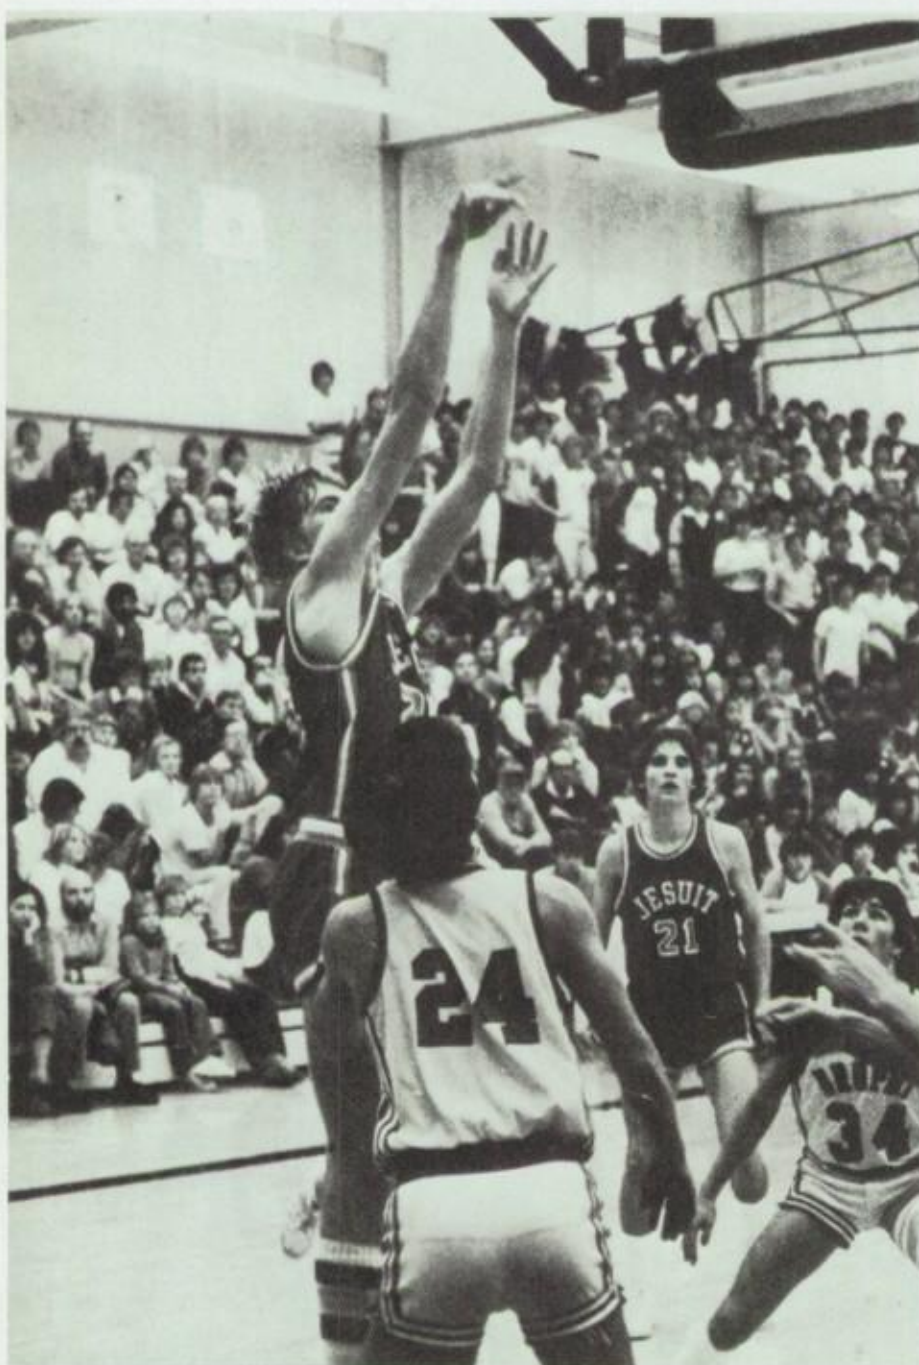

Brophy Prep, Mark Alarie, good spirit, and Dan Hecker's party highlighted the 8th Annual Jesuit Christmas Classic.

Participating in the tournament were Brophy Prep from Phoenix, Loyola High School from Los Angeles, Bellarmine Prep of San Jose, St. Patrick's of Vallejo, Sacred Heart from San Francisco, defending AAA North Section Champion — St. Mary's of Stockton, Christian Brothers from Oak Park, and Jesuit.

The All-Tournament Team was Matt Kraut and Tim Stewart of Bellarmine, Bill Van Dyke and Rich Zacher from Brophy, Michael Daly of Loyola, Keith Crawford and Marty Arenas from Sacred Heart, Marty Heede from Jesuit, and Ken Greene and Brian Raishwain of St. Mary's. There were many good players who took the floor, but in the end, it was MVP Mark Alarie and Brophy Prep who dominated.

SEASON FILLED WITH UPS AND DOWNS

Another successful season for varsity basketball ended with a second place finish in Delta League play and a second consecutive T.O.C. berth.

Led by seniors Dave Cooley and Steve Anderson and junior Marty Heede early season play was strong. However, after losing 2 of 3 games in the Christmas Classic the Big Red Machine sputtered to an 8-7 pre-league record.

In an amazing turnaround the Marauders, led by all-league selections Cooley and Heede, posted a fine 10-5 record. Contributors off the bench include Steve Smith, Mike Ellison, and Paul "Pick pocket" Murnane.

Finally, the forces of Vallejo High School proved too much and the Marauders succumbed in a valiant effort 66-55, in the year's final setback.

Dal Cielo hits another bucket.

League play for the JV Marauders proved an easy task as they finished with a 13-2 record, good enough for the League title. Their overall record was 24-4.

The JV's were led by the one-two scoring punch of Tim Marchi and Doug DalCielo. Tom Griffin and Marty Holbus sparked the team with fine inside play and rebounding. Pat McCarthy and Jim Corkill added outside shooting and Tim Anderson was the floor leader. Coming off the bench were Pat Bagley, Bill Shoemaker, and Kurt Baer.

Much of the first half of the freshmen basketball season was sluggish. The team progressed though, moving from the slow start to a seven game winning streak. From this point on, the team attained some exciting victories. They edged out Christian Brothers 51-50, and destroyed Sac High, which was the number one team in the league.

Notable performances by Jay Haro, Dave Phelan, and Jeff Hendrickson brought the team an overall record of 11-13. The team showed great promise because of a strong shooting capability and a strong sense of team defense. The overall outlook is good as a number of players posses all-league potential.

FACULTY ALMOST DEFEATED

Seniors are always expected to lose the Senior/Faculty Basketball game, but the faculty was lucky this year to escape with a hard fought 50-37 victory. The game began with Mr. Tom Shakely getting a quick two points and it seemed like the game would be a blowout. But this would not be the case. Midway through the second half the faculty was on top by a mere six points. This was as close as the Class of '82 would get however, as the faculty pulled away in the final minutes. The seniors were led by the hustling play of Andy Hodges, Pat McCrystle, and Dave Kim. Faculty standouts included Mr. Shakely, Mr. Carmazzi, and Junior Ref. Pete Dunphy. This game was an exciting one to watch, but in the end, The Class of '82 was forced to succumb.

Seniors can't play football! This year was the latest in a long line of faculty triumphs.

A tenacious faculty defense led by Tom "Two Toes" Shakely and Mike "Cool Breeze" Cartan stymied the seniors high-powered attack. Valiant effort was also put forth by Mr. Nolan, Mr. Meyers, and Mr. Evans.

Again "Deadly" Dan Carmazzi beat the Seniors with a timely touchdown toss to Sir Paul Rose making the final score 6-0.

Davey Novak and his sidekick Senior Campos produced a fine Varsity Baseball team. Led by speedsters Scott Lippi, Mark Gabriele, Chris Barsotti, Dan Hecker, and Frank "slower than a parked car" Garcia, the Marauders mounted a potent attack. Mound aces included Matt Stone, Eric Meyer, and Paul "Monster" Murnane. Pacing a strong bench were Curtis Takagishi, Scott Bradford, Mike Cornelius, and Greg Chelini. J.V.'S EARN NEW UNIFORMS AND DELTA TOP SPOT

Delta League first place finishes are nothing new to the J.V. Marauders, as they took first place just last year. Under the tutelage of co-coaches Dan Carmazzi and George Harper, the team battled for another first place finish.

The pitching staff was led by Mike Sanborn, Art Mikel, Matt Aguilera, Jerry Nielson and Dave Novotny. Defensively, the J.V.'s relied on Ted Messner, John Kouretas, Marty Lewis, Jim Stroup, and Anthony Barsotti. Tim Anderson, Dave Scholtz, Tony Ossola, and Greg Pekari made things happen with their aggressive and hustling play. Offensive leaders were Jason Brenzel, Pete Abi-Nader, Gerald Bauske, Art Mikel and Matt Aguilera. This was a talented group of players who proved that they Strong hitting and consistent pitching provided Little Red Baseball with an exciting season this year. After demolishing "across the street rival" Rio Americano 11-5, they pulverized both Yuba City and McClatchy high schools with successive 12-4 victories.

The pitching staff is led by Jeff Dorricott (3-1) and Mike Musolino (1.00 ERA) and includes the fine arms of Ron Martinelli and Tim McCrystle. This talented montage maintained a combined ERA of 2.00.

The big bats of Paul Willover, Jay Haro, Jim Sachs (1 homerun), Greg Goldman, Dave Weaver, Paul Espinoza and John Murphy spearheaded a strong hitting attack which averaged well over .300.

Head coach Mike Cartan feels that this is one of his most dedicated, cohesive and talented teams in recent years. He is confident that they can garner another

JESUIT INFECTED BY TRACKMAN FEVER

Torrential rains wiped out three of the first four meets for the Marauder Trackmen to the chagrin of Coaches Lange, Evans, Speciale, Belluomini, and Romero. However, strong performances from Seniors Pat McCrystle and Andrew Hodges as well as from Juniors Brett Stauffer and Mike Gilliam set the pace for this year's squad. Field Events proved to be a weak point for the team, but school record holder John Cummings and Dan Ingoglia consistently won valuable points. Good spirit and an eager finish helped to lift the Marauders to an excellent season and the League always know that the Marauders were on the attack.

The sprinters were Mike Larivee, Rick Bassinet, Bob and Lloyd Day, and Shawn Holt. Long jumper Chris Madden and high jumper/pole vaulter Pat Cox bolstered the team. Conflicting philosophies on swimming was given as the official reason behind Jesuit's leaving Arden Hills. Jesuit adjusted by using the facilities at El Camino High School at 6:30 a.m. each morning. The team managed to survive the move and led by All Americans Nick Bagatelos, Niel Fischer, and Mike Shaffer won the Sections. Kurt Hinkey, Rick Debaere, Pat Madalo, and Chris Bagatelos helped the team greatly throughout the season. Though the season was characterized by ups and downs, the team overcame the obstacles and brought to Jesuit another Section title, the seventh straight. Over the years, Jesuit has proven to be a powerhouse in high school tennis. This year the Jesuit Tennis Team has won yet another Delta League title by going undefeated in league play. At first, it appeared that the graduation of 12 out of the 16 starters from last year's #1 ranked NorCal team would prove to be too much for Jesuit Tennis tradition. Could the dynasty over the Sacramento area high schools be broken? It looked inevitable until new Coach Jim Peth appeared on the scene. By employing new and bizarre tennis strategies Coach Peth and Assistant Coach Randy Havens managed to lead the Marauders out of the dark. This year's squad was led by Senior Doug Pratt. Other seniors included Mike Heller, Jon Poole, John Bower, Jim Irwin, Paul Whetstone, Greg Willett, and Tim Daley. With the help of Juniors Peter Rooney and Matt O'Connor and Freshmen Jerome David, and Marc Spitz, Future Delta

League titles won't be difficult to net.

Golfers with an abundance of talent have been plentiful at Jesuit over the years. This year's team, led by seniors Jim Wright, Dave Cooley, and Mike Turnadiff, is no exception. They will be in the thick of the Delta League race and hope to challenge for the Sub-Section and Section championships. A WHOLE NEW WORLD

It's September that you first find your place under the sun and it comes as a shock; the glaring heat of September. As the year ages, the sun seems to turn to wind and rain; Jesuit grows and progresses. Finally, the intense sun of late May hits you in the face; another class graduates, another school year ends and we await again the glaring heat of September.

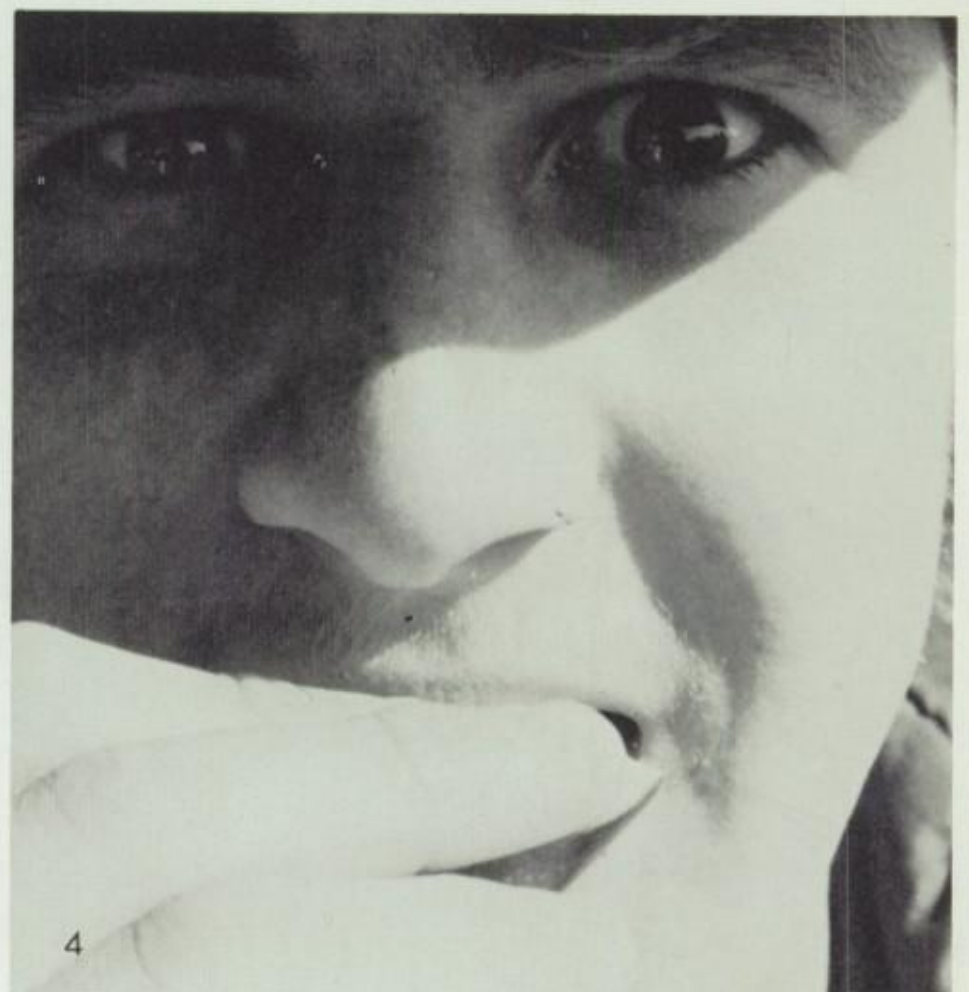

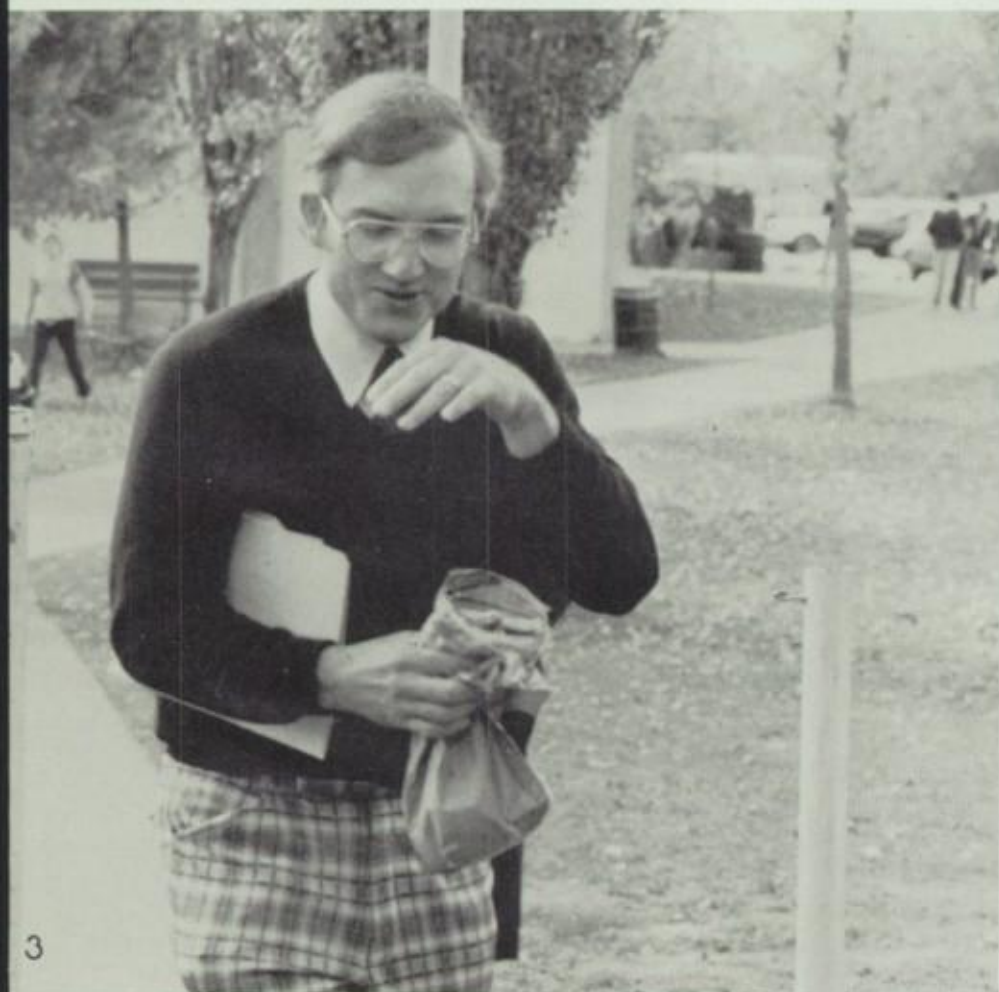

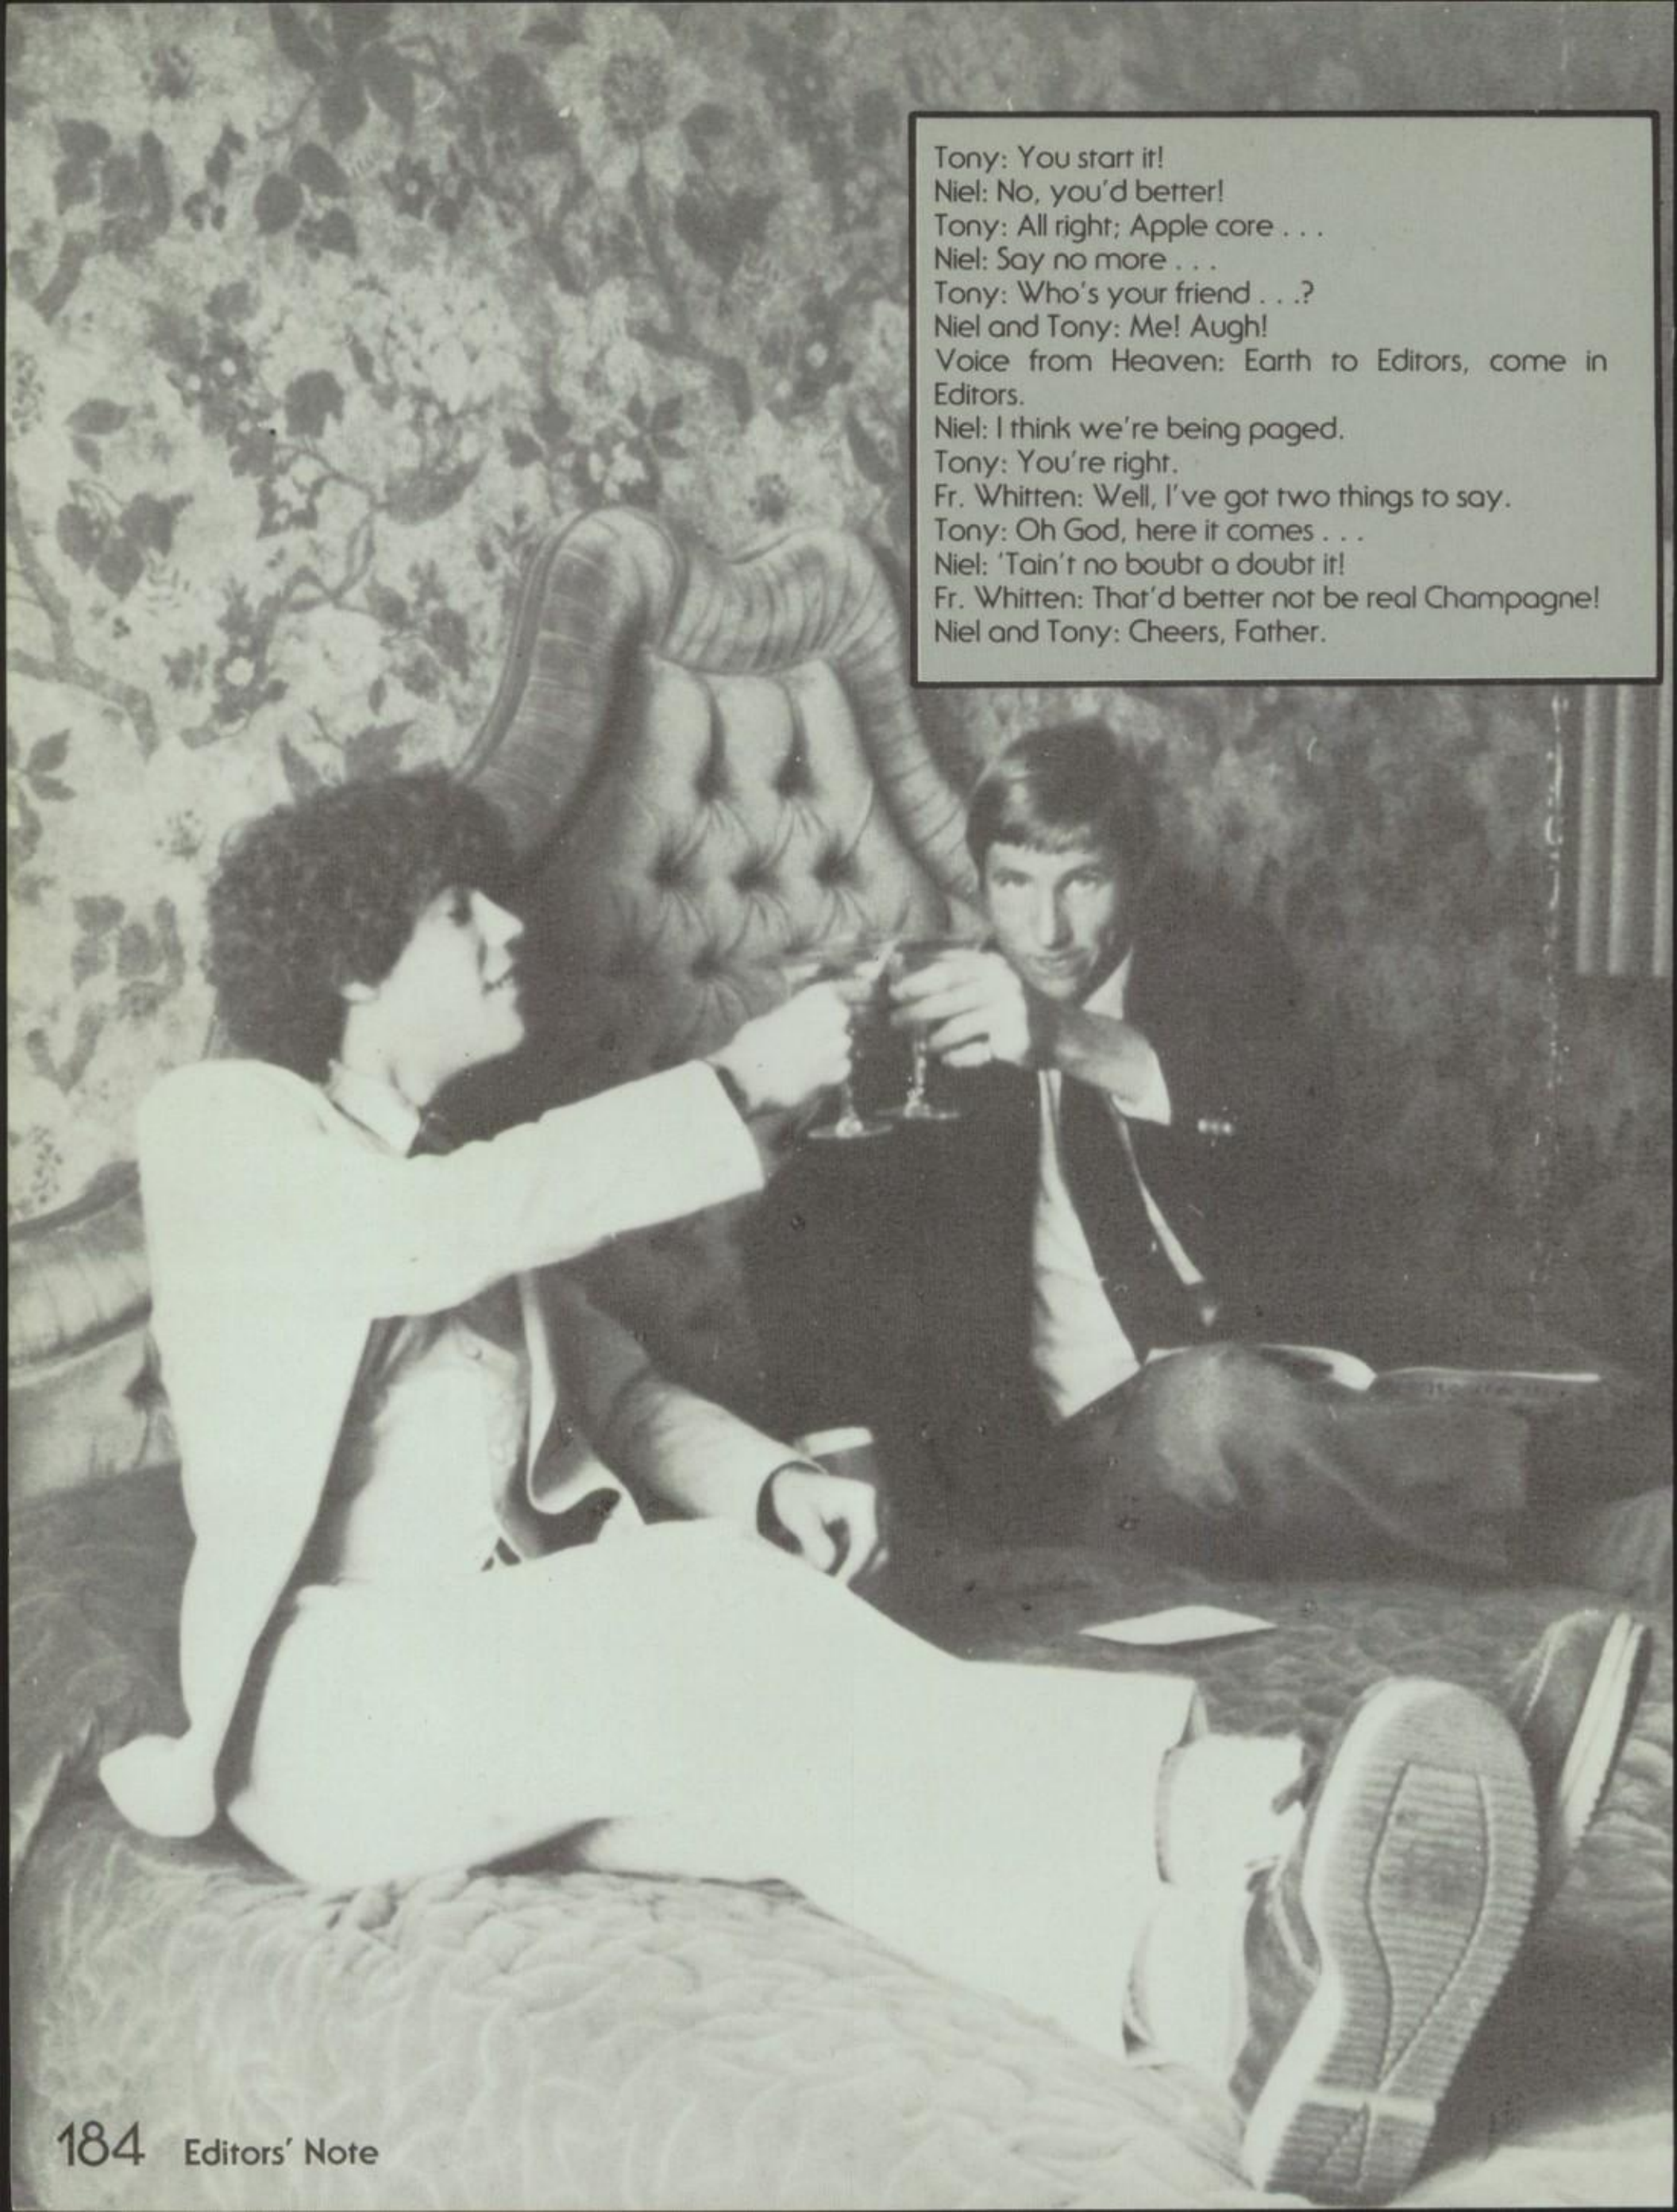

YOU'LL DISCOVER . . .

THE JESUIT COMMUNITY

1. John Groh takes a break in the action during Bleacher Bums.
2. This is what this school does to you!
3. Mr. Dan Carmazzi return from noontime therapy.
4. "I'm eating what? From where?"

Tony: You start it!
Niel: No, you'd better!
Tony: All right; Apple core . . .
Niel: Say no more . . .
Tony: Who's your friend . . .?
Niel and Tony: Me! Augh!
Voice from Heaven: Earth to Editors, come in Editors.
Niel: I think we're being paged.
Tony: You're right.
Fr. Whitten: Well, I've got two things to say.
Tony: Oh God, here it comes . . .
Niel: 'Tain't no boubt a doubt it!
Fr. Whitten: That'd better not be real Champagne!
Niel and Tony: Cheers, Father.

Dear Bob,
It's been nice knowing you.

Mr. Glynn,
I've enjoyed you
as a teacher very much,
and I know you'll do
very well in the future.
Dave Jones
Class of '85

Dear Mr. Glynn
I have really enjoyed your class and I will miss you as a teacher
and as a friend
Best of luck over the summer
James Edward Cunningham

Mr. Glynn,
I have really got a lot out of Theology this year. It is also the first year which I really have learned something.
Jim Burton

Mr. Glynn,
I have thoroughly enjoyed your class this year! At first I was critical of the class and how it would turn out, but after a semester of your class it has been my favorite class. You have been a great teacher &
I wish you were going to be here next year!
You have inspired me theologically

Sincerely
James Forst

Dear Mr. Glynn.
Theology class this year was awesome.
Hope you have a

MR. GLYNN-
LIKE AH- LATER.
LIKE AH- I WILL BE- AH SEEN YA
AH- BY.

MR. GLYNN,
Thank you for teaching me in Theology. I think I really learned a lot. Have a killer summer.
See ya.

Mr. Glynn

THIS HAS BEEN A GREAT, FUN, AND LEARNING CLASS.

I WISH I COULD HAVE YOU FOR 3RD YR THEOLOGY, MAYBE YOU COULD TALK TO ~~YOUR~~ FATHER SULLIVAN AND WITH YOUR NEWLY EARNED REPUTATION YOU COULD PULL IT OFF. ANYWAY, I HOPE
YOU HAVE A GREAT SUMMER AND I HOPE
I GET YOU FOR SOMETHING NEXT YEAR.

Your Friend

Lloyd

P.S. PLEASE DON'T CORRECT THIS
P.S.S. I WOULD LIKE TO SAY
THAT THIS CLASS HAS MADE ME THINK ALOT ABOUT MYSELF & OTHERS.

Mr. Glynn

I really didn't get to know you very well this past semester.
And in the beginning it did seem a little tense but in the end it was really fun. I'll remember you as an excellent teacher. I wasn't an excellent student. Geoff
Gallawa

Mr. Glynn
I was kind of lost
disappointed when I lost
Mr. Shaeble. So it turned out
I liked your teaching style better
I will miss you next year but I will miss you so I am sure you will fun whenever you go. I am sure you will
John Murphy

Mr. Glynn,

I know we had our differences throughout the year. I don't feel there are any hard feelings. Good luck in later years.
